Amend the bill by striking out all of section 3 and inserting the following:

‘Sec. 3. 10 MRSA §1348, sub-§3, as enacted by PL 2005, c. 379, §1 and affected by §4, is amended to read:

3. Delay of notification; criminal investigation by law enforcement. ~~The~~If, after the completion of an investigation required by subsection 1, notification is required under this section, the notification required by this section may be delayed if for no longer than 7 business days after a law enforcement agency determines that the notification will not compromise a criminal investigation; the notification required by this section must be made after the law enforcement agency determines that it will not compromise the investigation.’

Amend the bill by inserting after section 4 the following:

‘Sec. 5. Application. This Act applies to a security breach discovered by a person subject to the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 10, chapter 210-B on or after the effective date of this Act.’

SUMMARY

This amendment clarifies that notification to persons affected by a security breach may not be delayed longer than 7 business days after law enforcement has determined notification will not compromise any criminal investigation. The amendment also provides that the changes to the security breach notification laws apply to a security breach discovered on or after the effective date of the changes.
