Fiscal Detail and Notes

This legislation eliminates the Bureau of Building Codes and Standards program within the Department of Public Safety and moves its authority and responsibilities to a new division created in the Office of the State Fire Marshal within the Department of Public Safety. The bill includes an Other Special Revenue Funds deallocation of $89,895 in fiscal year 2012-13 to the Department of Public Safety as a result of the elimination of the Bureau Director position. One half of the cost of a Public Safety License Inspector Supervisor position is transferred from the Office of the State Fire Marshal to the new division. The bill also reduces the transfer of the costs of a Planner II position from the State Planning office to the Bureau by $36,518 in fiscal year 2012-13.
