1 priority recommendations regarding unfunded or underfunded education mandates,
2 regulatory burdens and other education requirements that the review committee 3 established by the resolve recommended should be repealed or amended by the 4 Legislature.

5 The bill makes the following changes to the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 20-A.

6 1. It repeals requirements related to the promotion of gender equity for women in 7 public school administration, including provisions that require:

8 A. The joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over 9 educational matters to hold hearings every 2 years on the status of women in public 10 school administration;

11 B. The Commissioner of Education to set a statewide target goal for the employment 12 of women in positions requiring administrator certification; and

13 C. The Commissioner of Education to provide technical assistance to school 14 administrative units and compile data to monitor the progress in attaining the goals 15 established for gender equity for women in public school administration.

16 2. It repeals the requirement that the Commissioner of Education maintain a 17 clearinghouse for information on development and deployment of nuclear weapons and 18 industrial nuclear usage in the world.

19 3. It repeals the requirement that the Department of Education employ staff and 20 make office space available to support school volunteer programs.

21 4. It removes provisions that require the Department of Education and the 22 Department of Administrative and Financial Services, Bureau of General Services to 23 establish a school facilities maintenance template and software and to provide technical 24 assistance to school administrative units to implement maintenance and capital 25 improvement programs for school facilities.

26 5. It repeals the requirement that the Department of Education report by January 15, 27 1992 on the status of national efforts to certify teachers of blind and visually impaired
28 students to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over 29 education matters.

30 6. It repeals the provision that allowed a school administrative unit to reduce the 31 number of days for the maintenance of schools by 5 days a year for school years 1991-32 1992 and 1992-1993.

33 7. It repeals the provisions that authorized the Department of Education to establish a 34 pilot project for state wards who were in the custody of the Department of Health and 35 Human Services in school year 1991-1992.

36 8. It repeals the provisions that allowed the cost of removing architectural barriers to 37 be included in the maximum allowable tuition that public or private schools could charge 38 for tuition students. These provisions applied to minor capital projects that received 39 approval by the Department of Education before June 30, 1982.
