

SECURITY SCREENING

The Maine Capitol Police conduct entry screening of all visitors to the Maine State House, including students. To expedite the screening process, please:

- ★ Arrive early—time needed for the screening process will vary
- ★ Leave bags, unnecessary metal objects, and other personal belongings on the bus or in your car
- ★ Be aware that cell phones, keys, and other personal belongings brought into the State House will be screened by a metal detector.

Legislative Information Office

For assistance with any other ADA requests, questions about services, or questions regarding the legislative process, legislative activity, the status of bills, legislative committee memberships, and legislative contact information, stop by the Legislative Information Office located in the State House immediately before security screening.

To reach us from any of the courtesy phones on campus dial:
