

§2103. Notice by administrator

1. Website; apparent owners. The administrator shall maintain a website accessible by the public and electronically searchable that contains the names reported to the administrator of all apparent owners for whom property is being held by the administrator. The administrator may exclude certain properties from publication on this website if reasonable exclusion serves the best interest of the State and the owner of the property.

[PL 2019, c. 498, §22 (NEW).]

2. Instructions for filing. The website must include instructions for filing with the administrator a claim to property.

[PL 2019, c. 498, §22 (NEW).]

3. Other communications and media. The administrator may use any printed publication, telecommunication, the Internet or other media to inform the public of the existence of unclaimed property held by the administrator.

[PL 2019, c. 498, §22 (NEW).]

SECTION HISTORY

PL 2019, c. 498, §22 (NEW).

The State of Maine claims a copyright in its codified statutes. If you intend to republish this material, we require that you include the following disclaimer in your publication:

All copyrights and other rights to statutory text are reserved by the State of Maine. The text included in this publication reflects changes made through the First Special Session of the 132nd Maine Legislature and is current through October 1, 2025. The text is subject to change without notice. It is a version that has not been officially certified by the Secretary of State. Refer to the Maine Revised Statutes Annotated and supplements for certified text.

The Office of the Revisor of Statutes also requests that you send us one copy of any statutory publication you may produce. Our goal is not to restrict publishing activity, but to keep track of who is publishing what, to identify any needless duplication and to preserve the State's copyright rights.

PLEASE NOTE: The Revisor's Office cannot perform research for or provide legal advice or interpretation of Maine law to the public. If you need legal assistance, please contact a qualified attorney.
