

STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FOURTH LEGISLATURE
SECOND REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Tuesday
January 19, 2010

Senate called to order by President Elizabeth H. Mitchell of Kennebec County.

Prayer by Reverend Timothy Wilcox, Fairfield and Fairfield Center
United Methodist Churches.

REVEREND WILCOX: Good morning, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, staff, visitors, and my fellow citizens of Maine. I bring you greetings from the people of Fairfield and the surrounding Waterville area and I invite you now to be in the spirit of prayer according to your own tradition.

Holy God, we thank You for this day and all the gifts that are a part of it. Even the beauty of this new fallen snow reminds of us of this amazing world and all its inhabitants You have made. We acknowledge that we have not always been good stewards of this world. Sometimes we have taken for granted Your goodness and the privileges we have. Even in these often challenging times we do not always hear the cry for justice or the plea of the powerless or voiceless. That still small voice that would call us to our full potential as Your people. Too often we have acted on our own selfish desire or from a sectarian, partisan, or parochial motivation. On this day, after our observance of Martin Luther King's birthday, help us remember his admonition to see all people, without regard to physical characteristic or human invention, as equal in Your sight. Oh God, we are in times of both struggle and opportunity to serve. Open our hearts to those in need. We are grateful for the response of so many from the state to our sisters and brothers in Haiti and we continue to offer them our prayers. We also offer prayers for those in want of food, water, medical care, jobs, shelter, and safety in our backyards and wherever they may be around the world, so often just out of the view of the news. Particularly this morning we remember those in this Body in need of a prayer today. We lift up Senator Nass's wife, Representative Joan Nass. We lift up the mother of Senator Raye and others that we would lift up now in our hearts in their times of need and joy. Give us now the wisdom to make together the difficult choices that are before us. Guide us as we balance requests for fiscal relief on one hand and our need to invest in those functions that make our society work and to our most vulnerable citizens. May we all be an example of Your great love in action. Help us remember the old familiar encouragement:
in essentials, unity; in nonessentials, liberty; in all things, charity.
Let us rise above the temptation to serve merely our self, our religion, our region, our party, or narrow interests. Help us instead to see the common bonds we share together and discover with Your help the will to work to these and Your greater ends. Propel us into the day by Your strength, Your guidance, and Your presence. These things we pray. Amen.

Pledge of Allegiance led by Senator Stanley J. Gerzofsky of Cumberland County.

Reading of the Journal of Thursday, January 14, 2010.

Doctor of the day, Dr. Alisa M. Roberts, DO of Bangor.

ORDERS

Joint Order

Expression of Legislative Sentiment recognizing:

Danny Lafayette, of Hermon, who is the recipient of a 2010 Governor's Conference on Tourism award for excellence in tourism. Mr. Lafayette was selected by his peers for his outstanding contribution to the tourism industry in the State through Lafayette Hotels. We extend our appreciation to Mr. Lafayette for his dedication to the State and congratulate him on his receiving this award;

SLS 319

Sponsored by Senator PERRY of Penobscot.
Cosponsored by Representative: RICHARDSON of Carmel.

READ.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Penobscot, Senator Plowman.

Senator PLOWMAN: Thank you, Madame President. Men and women of the Senate, I want to thank the good Senator from Penobscot, Senator Perry, for acknowledging my constituent, Danny Lafayette, who actually lives in Hampden but does run a huge endeavor out of his office in Hermon. He's the kind of guy you would all like to claim as your constituent. He employs over 1,000 people in the state of Maine. I'll tell you how many of you could claim him. He owns a hotel in Auburn. He owns one in Augusta. He owns several in Bangor and a couple in Bar Harbor, Belfast, Boothbay Harbor, Ogunquit, Old Orchard Beach, Orono, Portland, South Portland, Waterville, and Wells. This is a man who knows Maine. He's an incredible citizen and an incredible employer. In the spirit of giving back to the state of Maine, Lafayette Hotels, with Danny at the head of it, has pledged $2 million to the cancer care center in Brewer. That's not $2 million from Danny's pocket, that's $2 million that his corporation decided that they would all raise. A lot of it is from Danny's pocket. One of the women that works for him raised $1,000 in a yard sale. They sell teddy bears and bottles of water at other events and they are raising $2 million the hard way, but that is the kind of people that Danny and Carla Lafayette are. They received the Governor's Tourism award, which recognizes their efforts in bringing Maine to the forefront of where people think to go. If you have ever stayed at a Lafayette property you know that it speaks so well of the state of Maine. When they come they know that they are being hosted, they are being cared for, and Danny's values show all the way through, all the way through from top to bottom, in his organization. I want to thank the Senator for bringing this forward. I kind of wish I had been on it with him, but I do want to thank him for bringing it forward because it's not often that a man as humble as Danny Lafayette is recognized in this Body. He has been recognized nationally for many other things, but I think it makes him very proud to have been recognized by the Governor of the State of Maine. I'm pleased to speak on behalf today in the Maine State Senate. Thank you.

PASSED.

Sent down for concurrence.
