

STATE OF MAINE
ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-SIXTH LEGISLATURE
FIRST REGULAR SESSION
JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

In Senate Chamber
Tuesday
February 26, 2013

Senate called to order by President Justin L. Alfond of Cumberland County.

Prayer by Father Joseph Daniels, Corpus Christi Parish in Waterville.

FATHER DANIELS: Shall we pray. We stand before you, O God, conscience of our sinfulness but aware that we gather in Your name. Come to us, remain with us, and enlighten our hearts. Give us light and strength to know Your will, to make it our own, and to live it in our lives. Guide us by Your wisdom.
Support us by Your power, for You are God. You desire justice for all. Enable us to uphold the rights of others. Do not allow us to be misled by ignorance or corrupted by fear or favor. Unite us to yourself in the bonds of love and keep us faithful to all that is true. As we gather in Your name may we temper justice with love so that all our decisions may be pleasing to You and earn the reward promised to good and faithful servants. May the work which You have begun in us be brought to fulfillment. Amen.

Pledge of Allegiance led by Senator Anne M. Haskell of Cumberland County.

Reading of the Journal of Thursday, February 21, 2013.

Doctor of the day, Christopher Scott Kleeman, MD of Cape Elizabeth.

Joint Resolution

The following Joint Resolution:

H.P. 395

JOINT RESOLUTION ACKNOWLEDGING THE TREATY OF WATERTOWN OF 1776 ON THE OCCASION OF PRESIDENT GEORGE WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

WHEREAS, on the occasion of President George Washington's birthday, February 22nd, the Treaty of Watertown is recognized as having originated at the request of General George Washington, and it is also recognized as our Nation's first foreign treaty concluded by the United State of America after the adoption of the Declaration of Independence; and

WHEREAS, the Treaty of Watertown was the first recognition of United States sovereignty by foreign Nations, as well as one of the earliest expressions of equality and brotherhood among all people; and

WHEREAS, this "Treaty of Alliance and Friendship" was signed on July 19, 1776, in the Town of Watertown in the State of Massachusetts Bay, just 15 days after the signing of the Declaration of Independence; and

WHEREAS, the treaty established a military alliance between the United States and the St. John's Tribes, the Maliseets and the Passamaquoddy Tribe, and Mi'kmaq First Nations in Nova Scotia, 2 of the peoples of the Wabanaki Confederacy, during the Revolutionary War against Great Britain; and

WHEREAS, the treaty was signed by the "Governors," or Council, of the State of Massachusetts Bay, "in behalf of said State, and the other United States of America," just one day after the Declaration of Independence was proclaimed from the balcony of the Old State House in nearby Boston; and

WHEREAS, after the Declaration had been translated, the Maliseet and Mi'kmaq delegates said, "We like it well. We now see that America is right and Old England is wrong, and we will join with you in this fight." Whereupon, according to contemporary accounts, the Chiefs who were present jumped up from where they were sitting during that meeting and manifested a desire to immediately go to war against Great Britain; and

WHEREAS, the preamble of the Treaty of Watertown quotes from the conclusion of the Declaration, asserting for the 13 colonies "that as Free and Independent States they have full power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts & Things which Independent States may of Right do"; and

WHEREAS, under the terms of the treaty, the Mi'kmaq and St. John's Tribes, the Maliseets and Passamaquoddy Tribe, committed to "supply and furnish 600 strong men or as many as may be" for service in the Continental Army, restitution would be paid for any injuries to each other and disputes would be settled peacefully. The tribes also protected the Maine border and launched attacks against British installations; and

WHEREAS, Captain James Bowdoin, for whom Bowdoin College is named, pronounced the new allies as brothers, and proclaimed, "the United States now form a long and strong chain, and it is made longer and stronger by our brethren of the Maliseet and Mi'kmaq Tribes joining with us, and may the Almighty God never suffer the chain to be broken"; and

WHEREAS, after the Revolution, the Constitution of the United States gave Congress the exclusive authority to implement pre-1789 treaties made under the authority of the United States; thus the 1776 Treaty of Watertown transferred to the Federal Government; and

WHEREAS, in 1976 Governor Michael Dukakis of Massachusetts declared in an Executive Order that the Commonwealth has never ceased to recognize the treaty, in 1981 the Massachusetts State Legislature affirmed the special status of the Mi'kmaq and, since 1995, the Town of Watertown, Massachusetts has held an annual Treaty Day celebration; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That We, the Members of the One Hundred and Twenty-sixth Legislature, now assembled in the First Regular Session, on behalf of the people we represent, and on behalf of the State of Maine, which was formerly a part of the State of Massachusetts Bay, take this opportunity to recognize the significance and importance of the Treaty of Watertown of 1776, which is still honored today, for declaring "the United States and the Tribes of Indians shall henceforth be at peace with each other and be considered as friends and brothers united for their mutual defense, safety and happiness"; and be it further

RESOLVED: That official copies of this resolution, duly authenticated by the Secretary of State, be delivered to the appropriate representatives of the Houlton Band of Maliseet Indians, Aroostook Band of Micmacs, Passamaquoddy Tribe at Sipayik, Passamaquoddy Tribe at Motahkmikuk and Penobscot Indian Nation.

Comes from the House, READ and ADOPTED.

Joint Orders

Expression of Legislative Sentiment recognizing:

Hancock County Technical Center, in Ellsworth, and the center's media communications program students for their outstanding contributions in honoring our nation's veterans. Under the direction of Benjamin Speed, 6 students from the program collected video and audio recordings and photographs for Wreaths Across America as they embarked on a one-week trip to Arlington National Cemetery in December 2012 to lay wreaths on headstones. The students joined veterans, Gold Star families, volunteers and organizers in delivering the wreaths, stopping at numerous schools, monuments and veterans facilities along the way. Each day, students posted interviews, stories of the day and helmet-camera video clips online. Once they returned to Maine, the students created a library of media for use by Wreaths Across America, which will help the nonprofit organization to meet its mission of serving veterans and veterans' families. We extend our congratulations and our appreciation to all participants in this venture;

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Hancock, Senator Langley.

Senator LANGLEY: Thank you Mr. President. Men and women of the Senate, I rise today to recognize the students and instructor of the Hancock County Technical Center's Media Communications class for outstanding work chronicling this year's Wreaths Across America convoy. Ben Speed and his students spent a week aboard the convoy that started in the town of Harrington in Washington County and ended at Arlington National Cemetery. The wreath laying is held annually on the second or third Saturday of December. The annual pilgrimage from Harrington, Maine to Arlington National Cemetery has become known as the world's largest veteran's parade; stopping at schools, monuments, veteran's homes, and communities all along the way to remind people how important it is to remember, honor, and teach. Mr. Speed and his students have joined with Wreaths Across America to help teach younger generations about the value of their freedoms and the importance of honoring those who sacrificed so much to protect those freedoms. Their week-long journey was filled with more experiences and real world learning than could ever be delivered in a classroom. These students will never forget their experience and because of their work we now have a digital record. Please join them in the Welcome Center at noon to see their work, and meet the students and Wreaths Across America.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Washington, Senator Burns.

Senator BURNS: Thank you Mr. President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I would be remiss if I didn't too stand to recognize these young folks that have come down here today to visit with us. I'd just like to remind you that Wreaths Across America, for those of you who don't know, started in 1992 by Merrill Worcester up in Washington County. They deliver 100,000 wreaths or so to Arlington every year and about 450,000 across the country in honor of our fallen heroes. I'm very pleased that this group has cataloged this in video and I'm anxious to see that presentation this afternoon down in the Visitor's Center. I hope you will join me there. Again, my congratulations and thank you to these young people and Mr. Speed for making this possible. Thank you, Mr. President.

PASSED.

Sent down for concurrence.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair is pleased to recognize in the rear of the Chamber students Simon French, Byron Farley, and Nick Donovan and their instructor, Benjamin Speed. They all are from Hancock County Technical Center. Additionally, from Wreaths Across America, John and Bunny O'Leary. Would they please rise and accept the greetings of the Maine State Senate.
