Senator RAFFERTY of York moved the Senate ACCEPT the Report "A" OUGHT TO PASS AS AMENDED BY COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" (S-133).

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Penobscot, Senator Tipping.

Senator TIPPING: Thank you, Madam President. I just wish to speak briefly.
This bill is a reaction to the systemic and ongoing underfunding of Maine's public universities decade over decade since the 1970s. In 1990, the State provided more than 70% of funding for the University of Maine System, now it's around 40%. In 2022, we reached a milestone of the lowest real appropriation to the University of Maine System since its creation. This underfunding has led to higher tuition, dramatically less investment in young people, research, and our collective future. The greatest educational, economic, and cultural engines of our state are sputtering, and the costs are falling on the students and some of the lowest paid staff on our campuses. This bill doesn't solve the problem, but by increasing funding by 4% this year and next, it takes a step in the right direction. I also want to thank all the members of the committee and note that the Minority Report here actually increases funding to a greater degree. I think this is a wonderful bipartisan display of support for our university system and I urge this Body to pass it. Thank you.

Subsequently, on motion by Senator RAFFERTY of York, the Report "A" OUGHT TO PASS AS AMENDED BY COMMITTEE AMENDMENT "A" (S-133) Report ACCEPTED.

Bill READ ONCE.

Committee Amendment "A" (S-133) READ and ADOPTED.

Under suspension of the Rules, READ A SECOND TIME and PASSED TO BE ENGROSSED AS AMENDED.

Sent down for concurrence.

"JOINT RESOLUTION MAKING SEPARATE APPLICATIONS TO THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES CALLING ARTICLE V CONVENTIONS TO PROPOSE AMENDMENTS ESTABLISHING TERM LIMITS FOR MEMBERS OF CONGRESS AND TERM LIMITS FOR JUSTICES OF THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT"

S.P. 10

Majority - Ought Not to Pass (8 members)

Tabled - May 21, 2025 by Senator HICKMAN of Kennebec

Pending - motion by Senator BENNETT of Oxford to SUBSTITUTE the Joint Resolution for the Committee Report

(In Senate, May 21, 2025, Senator HICKMAN of Kennebec moved ACCEPTANCE of the Majority OUGHT NOT TO PASS Report.) (Roll Call Ordered)

The Chair ruled the motion by Senator BENNETT of Oxford to SUBSTITUTE the Joint Resolution for the Committee Report OUT OF ORDER.

THE PRESIDENT: The chair now recognizes the Senator from Oxford, Senator Bennett, and inquires for what purpose does the member rise?

Senator BENNETT: Madam President, I wish to speak.

THE PRESIDENT: The member will defer. Ruling of the Chair is not debatable unless an appeal is taken from the ruling. The Chair would inquire, are you looking to speak on the motion now?

Senator BENNETT: I seek recognition to address the Senate on the pending motion, which is acceptance of the majority ought not to pass report.

THE PRESIDENT: Then that is in order.

Senator BENNETT: Thank you. I am grateful for the indulgence. Fellow Members of the Senate, the Joint Resolution before you asks Congress to call two separate Article V Conventions, one to propose to a constitutional amendment on congressional term limits, and another to propose a constitutional amendment on term limits for supreme court justices.

Many people, as we know, have lost faith in the legislative and the judicial branches and believe real reform is needed. The Joint Resolution that I propose before you is a twist on the approach that we considered last session calling for two separate conventions for two popular reforms, one congressional and judicial term limits. This approach attempts to bridge some of the artificial divides by uniting as separate applications both reforms into one resolution.

I would note that co-sponsors on this measure are two Democrats and two Republicans from each of the two houses of this Legislature. This is entirely purposeful and immensely important. I believe for us to surmount the appropriate hurdles before us, we must work together toward our shared ends on common ground. According to a national poll published a couple years ago, 82% of American people support a constitutional amendment that would place term limits on members of Congress. Support for term limits is universal among voters and breaches political, geographic, and demographic divides.

Similarly, with growing concerns about the integrity and potential partisanship of the U.S. Supreme Court, it is time to look at some significant reforms there. According to Gallup, Americans' confidence in the judicial system and the courts have dropped to a record low of 35% as of last year. It's absolutely critical to repair this drop in trust. A September 2024 survey by the Annenberg Public Policy Center found that 68% of Americans support setting a specific number of years for justices to serve instead of granting them lifetime appointments. The proposal this legislation advances would establish staggered terms of 18 years for supreme court justices. Staggering the appointments in this way would give every President the opportunity to appoint two justices during a four-year term. There would likely be less intense confirmation battles because it would be understood that winning the presidency comes with the expectation of appointing two justices. It would also prevent the lopsided nature of appointments as how President Trump appointed three justices in his first term and President Biden only appointed one. I believe something must be done to regain the public's trust in our institutions.

So, let's be clear what the proposal is before us. An Article V application is not a request for Congress to do something; it is a statement that the state legislatures plan to force critical change with or without Congress's consent once they have two-thirds in agreement on the subject matter. Of course, any proposals will require three-fourths of the states, 38 of 50 states, to be ultimately ratified.

An Article V Convention is an option that the framers gave the state legislatures to check the power of an unresponsive Congress, which is sadly the case today. Some of you -- some are fearful that such a convention because one has not yet been called in our history before. But even though such conventions have not been called, they have proven their value, nonetheless. Many of the measures that have become ratified amendments to our constitution were first proposed as Article V measures by the states and gathered sufficient support that the Congress finally stepped in and made the proposed amendments, obviating the need for these conventions. I frankly suspect that this is what will happen with congressional and judicial term limits if our legislature, each of us, along with those in other states, do the same here.

Fellow Members, I believe it's time to put aside partisan differences, work together on commonsense reform such as term limits and other things like campaign finance reform. Thanks to the safety valve of an Article V Convention that the framers created for us, we have it in our power today to act and to pass this measure and to demand change.

So, I urge this Senate to please vote against the pending motion so we can consider the underlying measure. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: The pending question before the Senate is Acceptance of the Majority Ought Not to Pass report. A roll call has been ordered. Is the Senate ready for the question?

The Doorkeepers secured the Chamber.

The Secretary opened the vote.

ROLL CALL (#218)

YEAS: Senators: BAILEY, BEEBE-CENTER, CARNEY, CURRY, DUSON, GUERIN, INGWERSEN, LAWRENCE, PIERCE, RAFFERTY, RENY, ROTUNDO, TEPLER, TIPPING, PRESIDENT DAUGHTRY

NAYS: Senators: BALDACCI, BENNETT, BERNARD, BLACK, BRADSTREET, BRENNER, CYRWAY, FARRIN, GROHOSKI, HAGGAN, HARRINGTON, HICKMAN, LIBBY, MARTIN, MOORE, STEWART, TALBOT ROSS, TIMBERLAKE

EXCUSED: Senators: BICKFORD, NANGLE

15 Senator having voted in the affirmative and 18 Senators having voted in the negative, with 2 Senators being excused the motion by Senator HICKMAN of Kennebec to ACCEPT the Majority OUGHT NOT TO PASS Report, FAILED.

Senator BENNETT of Oxford moved the Senate SUBSTITUTE the Joint Resolution for the Committee Report.

On motion by Senator PIERCE of Cumberland, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll Call was ordered.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair now recognizes the Senator from Oxford, Senator Bennett.

Senator BENNETT: Thank you, Madam President. I would wish that the presiding officer would explain the consequences of a vote for this motion before you.

THE PRESIDENT: The motion before you as provided by the Senator from Oxford, Senator Bennett, would take the bill as originally drafted and put it in the place of the committee amendment, with no changes from the process, and it would be the originally drafted bill.

Senator PIERCE of Cumberland requested and received leave of the Senate to withdraw her motion to order a Roll Call.

The same Senator moved to INDEFINITELY POSTPONE the Joint Resolution and all accompanying papers.

On motion by Senator STEWART of Aroostook, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll Call was ordered.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair now recognizes the Senator from Androscoggin, Senator Timberlake.

Senator TIMBERLAKE: Thank you, Madam President. I'm trying to figure clarity here. This motion would make us move on to what the Minority Report would be? Would we have a potential to go there or just kill the whole bill? I need to understand where we're at, please.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair would advise that the motion made by the Senator from Oxford, Senator Bennett, would not be the Minority Report that the committee presented. Instead, it would be the original bill as drafted. So, this would be indefinite postponement, the Roll Call before the Body would be killing of the entire measure before us. At this time, the Minority Report has not been moved before the Body.

Senate at Ease.

The Senate was called to order by the President.

Senator PIERCE of Cumberland requested and received leave of the Senate to withdraw her motion to INDEFINITELY POSTPONE the Joint Resolution and all accompanying papers.

On motion by Senator PIERCE of Cumberland, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll Call was ordered.

THE PRESIDENT: As requested, an explanation of where we are at, that this would be putting this before the Body and that it would be the first vote on accepting the substitution of this Joint Resolution for the committee report. Following this, were this to be accepted, there would be a subsequent vote that would require the two-thirds for the adoption of the resolution.

So, the current motion and the current roll call vote in front of us is acceptance of the substituting of the original joint resolution instead of the -- for the committee report.

The Doorkeepers secured the Chamber.

The Secretary opened the vote.

On motion by Senator PIERCE of Cumberland, supported by a Division of one-fifth of the members present and voting, a Roll Call was ordered.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair now recognizes the Senator from Sagadahoc, Senator Tepler.

Senator TEPLER: Thank you, Madam Chair. I rise to pose a question through the Chair.

THE PRESIDENT: The Member may proceed.

Senator TEPLER: Thank you, Madam President. Madam President, can an Article V Convention as listed in the Constitution be limited to a particular topic?

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Oxford, Senator Bennett.

Senator BENNETT: Thank you, Madam President. Yes, it is, it's limited to the topic that is instructed by the states for it to consider.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Kennebec, Senator Hickman.

Senator HICKMAN: Thank you, Madam President. The amendment before us actually includes the phrase that requires that our delegation, if it were to pass, would be limited to the consideration in the Article V Joint Resolution. Thank you, Madam President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes the Senator from Cumberland, Senator Duson.

Senator DUSON: Thank you, Madam President. Many legal scholars have concluded that an Article V Constitutional Convention is a dangerous and untested event. There are no guardrails to prevent a constitutional convention from becoming a runaway convention and dealing with items outside the scope of what is mentioned in this resolution. The only time a convention like this has been called was to tweak the Articles of Confederation. That convention ended with throwing out the Articles and writing a whole new Constitution.

We are in a fragile moment for our democracy, with our norms and constitutional limits being tested every day by a chaotic federal government. We don't know how a convention like this would be organized, what voices would get a seat at the table, or who would control the agenda. Now is not the time to open up our Constitution to who knows what kind of changes to our fundamental rights, liberties, and guarantees of democracy. While some may find the policy priorities outlined in this and other resolutions tempting, an Article V Convention is not the method for achieving them.

Thank you, Madam President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair now recognizes the Senator from Oxford, Senator Bennett.

Senator BENNETT: Thank you, Madam President. I just would dispute some of the statements by the Senator from Cumberland.

The scholarship is actually fairly solid on this question. An Article V Convention hasn't ever been called, but it is clear that whatever comes out of it would require ratification by 38 of 50 states. So, I have absolutely no fear based on the research I've done and the reading I've done that a runaway convention is even a concern. An Article V Convention by its definition is limited in scope. The Constitutional Convention that happened in 1787 was a completely different vehicle. So, and that Constitutional Convention created the Constitution which actually contains the Article V provisions which the framers intended to use for this purpose.

So, I would just remind all Members that whatever comes from the Article V Convention does still need to be approved by 38 of the 50 states, ratified to become part of our Constitution. And I actually think that -- I agree with the Senator from Cumberland that our times are fraught, our democracy is fragile, and it is desperately in need of reform by thoughtful people in an organized fashion. The alternative is unthinkable.

Thank you, Madam President.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair now recognizes the Senator from Sagadahoc, Senator Tepler.

Senator TEPLER: Thank you, Madam President. Madam President, I rise again to pose another question through the Chair.

THE PRESIDENT: The Member may proceed.

Senator TEPLER: Thank you, Madam President. Madam President, who serves on the Constitutional Convention? Who are the members of said convention?

THE PRESIDENT: The pending question before the Senate is Acceptance of the Minority Ought to Pass as Amended report. A roll call has been ordered. Is the Senate ready for the question?
