Joint Resolutions

Joint Resolutions in Memoriam:

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-19) Roy W. Baker, of Old Orchard Beach. Mr. Baker served in the United States Army during World War II as a radar mechanic for the 9th Bombardment Squadron located on Tinian Island. He became a Melrose, Massachusetts firefighter and served as an emergency medical technician on the Rescue Squad at the Melrose Fire Department headquarters. He served as a firefighter for 25 years. He also was a civil engineer for Hayes Engineering for over 15 years. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge in Melrose and coached hockey and Little League baseball. During summers in Ocean Park in Old Orchard Beach, he volunteered at Royal Family Kids Camp, a summer program for disadvantaged youths sponsored by the Saco First Baptist Church, for which he served on the Board of Directors. Mr. Baker will be long remembered and sadly missed by his wife of 78 years, Ruth, and by his family and friends;

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-20) Carol Davis, of Old Orchard Beach. Mrs. Davis helped found the Old Orchard Beach Community Food Pantry and served as its director since its inception in 2012. Previously, she was a volunteer at the Old Orchard Beach Food Pantry. She was passionate about ensuring others were not going hungry, and she created a friendly environment for people in need. Mrs. Davis will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends and all those whose lives she touched;

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-21) Sheila Crowley, of Jonesport. Ms. Crowley worked in several area banks and retired after working for many years at Church's True Value. Ms. Crowley will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends;

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-22) Hulda "Huddy" Hinkley Peterson, of Harrington. In 1972, Mrs. Peterson and her husband, Charlie, purchased and settled into her grandparents' former home in Harrington, "The Triple H Ranch," which was home to the Christmas wreath business she operated for over thirty years. She also co-owned a marine worm business with her husband, was a driver for WHCA, was a property manager and raked blueberries. Mrs. Peterson will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends;

HLS 593

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-23) Alverna Leona Williams, of Jonesport. Mrs. Williams will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family and friends;
