Joint Resolutions

Joint Resolutions in Memoriam:

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-8) Andrea Quaid, of Lewiston. Ms. Quaid worked in investment management services for banks in New York, Chicago, London and Paris before starting a career in government service. She worked in the office of Congressman Michael Michaud and at the time of her death as a Constituent Services Representative for Senator Angus King, handling casework around immigration and State Department issues. In the community, she performed for the Lewiston-Auburn Community Little Theatre in To Kill a Mockingbird, You Can't Take It With You, The Importance of Being Earnest and The Odd Couple. She served on the boards of the Franco-American Collection at the Lewiston-Auburn Campus of the University of Southern Maine, the Androscoggin Land Trust, the Lewiston-Auburn Community Little Theatre and the Dartmouth College Club of Maine. Ms. Quaid will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family, friends and community;

HLS 87

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-9) John Nowacki, of Kennebunk. Mr. Nowacki joined the United States Army Reserves in Ohio in 1968 and transferred to a unit in Maine when he moved here in the early 1970s to teach Physics at Kennebunk High School. After seven years as the school's physics teacher, Mr. Nowacki left teaching to join Sprague Electric, which had a plant that made capacitors in Sanford. Starting at Sprague as an engineer, he became the purchasing manager and then the engineering manager. He later returned to teaching. In 1986, Mr. Nowacki became the sole physics teacher at Noble High School. He was a part of the team that reimagined what the school could be and provided significant input into the design of the new building in North Berwick. He also helped coach the Odyssey of the Mind team. Mr. Nowacki was very active in amateur radio and was an active ham for almost 65 years. His call sign for the last decade was W3NA. He contacted every possible country except North Korea, and he was included on the DXCC Honor Roll. Over the years, he taught amateur radio as adult ed courses, introducing others to the hobby. He also helped to start the New England Radio Discussion Society. Mr. Nowacki will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family, friends and community;

HLS 195

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-10) Lillian Marshall Bartlett, of Kennebunkport. In 1978, Mrs. Bartlett and her husband Carl settled in Kennebunkport. They built a family home and, with a partner, opened Port Hardware. A lifetime member of the Methodist Church, Mrs. Bartlett was a willing worker in Concord, New Hampshire at the Wesley United Methodist Church and at the Church on the Cape in Kennebunkport. She was recently recognized by the town with the Boston Post Cane. Mrs. Bartlett will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family, friends and community;

HLS 196

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-11) Ann Emerson Spaulding, of Kennebunk. After summering in Maine beginning in the early 1970s, Mrs. Spaulding and her family moved to Kennebunk in 1978. Soon after she arrived, she opened and operated a boutique clothing store, Annie's Apple, in the heart of Dock Square in Kennebunkport. She was a passionate supporter of education and the arts, supporting the KBIA summer youth organization and serving on the boards of Berwick Academy, Wheelock College, KBIA, the Portland Symphony Orchestra and the Spaulding Center for Active Living. She was instrumental in working with Sugarloaf Mountain Arts to host outdoor summer concerts in the 1980s, and she was the driving force behind the Music on Main free public concert, which featured the Portland Symphony Orchestra performing in downtown Kennebunk. Mrs. Spaulding will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family, friends and community;

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-12) Clare Ralph Greenlaw, of Falmouth, a pioneer in robotics and experiential STEAM education in Maine. Dr. Greenlaw's work focused on the learning sciences, Brain-Based Learning and innovative approaches to teaching pre-engineering at the secondary level. In 2024, after serving as lead mentor for Northern Force Robotics, FIRST Team 172, Dr. Greenlaw founded the STEM Coliseum and Learning Center in Portland. The facility has since gained national recognition as a leading model for making cutting-edge, experiential STEM education accessible to all students. Earlier in his career, Dr. Greenlaw worked in immunology research and product development. In 1995, he joined Cheverus High School as Director of Admissions, later serving as Director of Institutional Advancement and teaching chemistry. He then transitioned into business leadership and strategy, with roles in e-commerce and online marketing at E I Printing, Inc., and Pyramid Checks and Printing. He also founded two companies, Precision Direct, Inc. and Panacea Solutions, LLC. Beginning in 2008, Dr. Greenlaw pursued doctoral studies in International Business at Southern New Hampshire University, where he also served as an adjunct professor. He went on to become Faculty Lead for the MBA and Undergraduate Business Administration and International Business Programs before retiring in 2023 as Dean of Business Administration and International Business Programs. Dr. Greenlaw will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family, friends and community;

HLS 198

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-13) Perry Elwin Wood, of Sanford. Mr. Wood devoted much of his life to public service, first working in the State's surplus food program delivering food to those in need in Sanford and the surrounding communities and later working as a manager in the Sanford branch of the Department of Human Services, where he remained until his retirement in 2009. He was active in the community, serving many years in the Sanford Lions Club and the Sanford Democratic Party, and in later years he enjoyed having spirited conversations at the Sanford Elks Club. Mr. Wood will be long remembered and sadly missed by his family, friends and community;

WHEREAS, the Legislature has learned with deep regret of the death of:

(1-14) Helen P. Trefethen, of Westbrook. Mrs. Trefethen raised four children and worked at the American Can Company for many years. She and her family spent two years living in Franklin, Massachusetts, where she worked for the Tupperware Company, before returning to Portland. She then joined the Portland School System. She worked as a teacher's aide and later worked as an Administrative Assistant in the Assistant Principal's office at Portland High School, where she became affectionately known as "Mrs. T" to generations of students. After retiring, Mrs. Trefethen continued to give back to her community. She was the coordinator for the Meals on Wheels program at Prides Corner Church in Westbrook and volunteered wherever she was needed. She stayed connected with her church families, first at Prides Corner Church and later at Windham Hill United Church of Christ. Mrs. Trefethen will be long remembered and sadly missed by her family, friends and community;
